AN OVERVIEW

St Alphonsa Public School & Junior College, Kudamaloor is founded in the name of St Alphonsa, the first officially canonized Indian Saint. A native of Kudamaloor by birth, St Alphonsa spent the early years of her life in the premises where the school is situated now. Herself a teacher by profession and a nun by calling, St Alphonsa passionately guided the children and loved them beyond their social status. The school is founded to honour this noble soul from the hamlet of Kudamaloor and to impart schooling according to the lofty academic ideals this cloistered nun cherished in her life. Established in the year 2007, this institution adheres to the catholic policy on secular education which counts schools as extended arms of the Church.

St. Alphonsa Public School & Junior College has its own tastefully architected multi-storeyed buildings with proper class rooms, laboratories, library cum reading room etc. Each floor has separate toilets for girls and boys. The school has a thousand plus seating capacity all weather auditorium where important functions are held.

A multipurpose auditorium for different cultural and co- curricular activities, is available on the 3rd floor of the school building.

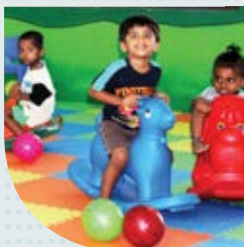

The lush green landscaped surroundings of the school compound are not only pleasing to the eyes but also a conducive learning environment.

The Archbishop of Changanacherry is the Patron of this Institution. The school owned and managed by St. Marys Forane Church Educational and Charitable Trust, Kudamaloor, is a minority institution run by the Christian Community.
