

TEACHERS TRAINING

Teachers of our school actively participated in a range of training programs conducted both within our school and in other institutions. These programs provided valuable opportunities for professional growth, enabling our educators to stay updated with the latest teaching techniques, tools, and curriculum developments. By engaging in these training sessions, our teachers have enhanced their pedagogical skills, fostering a more dynamic and effective learning environment for our students. Their continuous involvement in such programs reflects their commitment to providing the best education possible.